ABORIGINAL STEEL ART

Aboriginal Steel Art (ASA) creates and supplies a range of corporate gifts and gift lines, awards and trophies, fine art structure and public art installations. It is wholly owned and operated by Indigenous man Wayne McGinness and his wife Lucy. All pieces are handcrafted in Kuranda. Wayne's ability and talent to combine his contemporary style of Aboriginal art with present-day technology and materials has opened up a niche market for these amazing products. Using marine grade stainless steel to ensure a superior finish, ASA creates a range of products to impress your VIPs, speakers or delegates.
