BRAD NEWTON PHOTOGRAPHY

Brad Newton is an event, editorial and commercial photographer based in Cairns. He shoots in any location with the latest digital technology. Whether it's swimming with an underwater housing, hanging out of a helicopter or getting in a crocodile pen – getting “the shot” is what matters most. While every shoot is different, what shines through consistently in Brad’s work is the story behind the images. He is focused, dedicated, and will make the most out of any situation whether there is rain, hail or beautiful blue skies. Working with Brad offers clients the peace of mind that the images they require will not only be of the highest standard, they will also be timeless allowing them to use them again and again.
